525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains [illegible] expected that the track will be laid [illegible] further to Evans Pass the highest point of the road by January The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred W[illegible] in the rock cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample The United States grants its Six Per Cent Bonds at the rate of from $16 000 to $48 000 per mile for which it takes a second lien as security and receives payment to a large [illegible] the full extent of its claim in services [illegible] are issued as each twenty miles are finished and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road thoroughly supplied with depots repair shops stations and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments

The United States also makes a donation of 12 800 acres of land to the mile which will be a source of large revenue to the Company Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the best for [illegible] in the world and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more Hon E D Morgan and Hon Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses so that they always represent an actual and productive value

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue if not another mile were built It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent and as there will be no competition it can always be done at profitable rates

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is in fact a Government Work built under the supervision of Government officers and to a large extent with Government money and that its bonds are issued under Government direction It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property As the Company's

A PARTY OF COSMOPOLITANS IN ALASKA —A correspondent of the Boston Journal in a letter dated Sitka Harbor December 3d, gives the following

Yesterday five of us made an excursion to Olga Bay six miles west of here We dined on a huge fragment of trap rock detached from the cliff above Of course, fish was the staple of our repast Our party was decidedly cosmopolitan—made up of men who had traversed to the ends of the earth We had a pleasant chat on the incidents of sea life My comrade on the right hand is La Borne the son of a Frenchman born in Austria and raised in Russia He is 28 years of age speaks all the languages of Europe has visited New Zealand Tasmania South Africa China, Japan and for the last three years has been interpreter for the American Russian Telegraph Company, which in 1864, began the enterprise of extending a telegraphic line from San Francisco 2 500 miles to Behring Straits thence down the Siberian coast to the Amoor and across Asia to St Petersburg After expending over $1 000 000 the company has abandoned the undertaking The success of the Atlantic cable in 1866 made the completion of the project unnecessary While it was extending its line across Alaska La Borne was of great service in interpreting the jangle of the natives Opposite to him is Cameron a canny Scotchman of [illegible] who is as familiar with the interior mining towns of Australia as the carrier of the Journal is with the streets of Boston His last feat was an overland trip from York Factory across British America, to this coast Next to him is Isaac Thompson a Bowery boy at 18 then a rough young hunter in Texas a graduate of the Mexican war and for years after a pioneer guide for parties making the overland trip by the way of New Mexico He is now in Government employ on the Pacific coast and proposes to make his fourteenth overland trip by returning east in early spring On my left is Benjamin Darling—the veteran of the party—a native of Boston He came to California in 1849 and strange enough has never panned out a grain of gold or been sick a day since landing Few however have [illegible] [illegible] who [illegible] March [illegible] the same rare [illegible]

POSITION OF THE DEMOCRACY

The "Time Honored Principles"

[illegible]

We take the liberty to present the Copperheads of Oregon with the following article from their newspaper organ the La Crosse Democrat in advance of its reception by them through the regular course of the mails It is to be hoped that it will be received as a satisfactory exposition of the time honored principles We quote from the Democrat of February 2

A band of robbers thieves tyrants usurpers [illegible] traitors Constitution ignorers [illegible] taxing [illegible] protecting [illegible] of fanaticism [illegible] the name of a Rump Congress illegally in session [illegible] outside of the Constitution [illegible] with the President to [illegible] [illegible] pretext have declared war upon the Executive upon the rights of States and people upon the cause of the people of the North so well defended at most terrible cost

As we predicted during the reign of the infamous tyrant now dead the party in power has shown its red hand filled as it is with stolen liberties of an enduring people and we behold the spectacle of a so called Union party, warring against the Union brave men defended and fought for while these Congressional thieves and usurpers were filling their pockets with the stolen goods and their coffers with non taxable bonds

Lincoln the [illegible] of tyrants promised good and wrought evil—he insulted dying men with nasty [illegible] made a house of prostitution of the Executive Mansion he surrounded himself with all that was vile profligate and infamous till even God could endure the outrage on a [illegible] people no longer and in the twinkling of an eye hurled his soul into hell, there to atone for the wrong done to a nation

A Congress in part—an illegally formed body of traitors and usurpers now throw off their mask step boldly outside the Constitution, to depose a President establish a centralized despotic power the intention of which is to blot out States and vested rights rivet the bonds still tighter over the muscles of labor and wrest from the people every victory ever won by force of arms—every step gained on the road to liberty and prosperity by argument and the wisdom of statesmanship now unknown or ignored

To Johnson we now look His duty is plain He has sworn to defend the liberties of the people He is the head of the nation—it is for him to command—it is for others to obey, and to aid him in the defence of liberty and the blessings it promises Let him stand firm! Oh, for one hour of Andrew Jackson! We'd nail up the doors of the Senate and of Congress

We'd plant all the cannon in front of the White House the Treasury, Postoffice and War Departments

We'd declare the District of Columbia under martial law take command in person of the army arrest any traitorous Republican Senator member of Congress or perjured Cabinet officer try them by a drum head court, and hang them within twenty four hours!

We'd teach traitors that the punishment of treason was death

We'd call upon brave glorious Maryland to send 25 000 troops to sustain the President in his discharge of a sworn duty, and if Maryland could not furnish troops enough, we'll call for volunteers from every State and if the backers of traitors who dangling in the air wanted war, if they wanted to destroy all there is of America we'd give them such a taste and feast of blood as the world never saw till they cried for mercy!

It is the duty of Andrew Johnson to maintain his position—to defend the constitution—to save the country and its liberties If he cannot do it we are all lost for a time If he can if he will and he can if he will it is our duty to aid him and millions of brave men are ready to stand by him if he will only stand by the country

But let him be deposed! And then comes the revolution Good by United States bonds!

Farewell leaders of the Republican party for your rest will be in the bosom of your cowardly martyr the black one saintly lamented!

If you want war you can have it, and if you commence it there will be no ending thereof till [illegible] are settled—till New England be shorn of power and becomes more desolate than ever was the South and there shall be no more Republicans left to curse the land it is so rapidly destroying

YOUNG PATRIOTS—Brothers in the battle for the Right—stand firm and be ready to march forth like avengers [illegible] And tell the traitors at Washington—we are ready

Johnson's Protectors

An enthusiastic person in New York styled Col F Tucker attempted to form a body guard for President Johnson and opened a recruiting office with a muster roll pledging support to the policy of Andrew Johnson President of the United States and a resort to arms if necessary A good number of names were signed, and everything went on well until noon when two policemen visited the place seized the lists and carried them to the second precinct police station The Tribune reporter in describing the arrest says

Col Tucker was found in a little room up two flights of stairs reached by groping through a miniature mammoth cave something like the one on exhibition at Banvard's Museum When our reporter introduced himself the colonel was all cordiality and said the sole object of his asking men to enroll was to protect the President if Congress adopted measures outside the pale of the law In the room where the mighty protector of the President was seated was a stove, a table a desk and under this desk half concealed was a box of coals Lounging about the room in various attitudes and [illegible] of martial ardor were a number of seedy looking individuals, clad in garments once blue but now white about the seams and shoulder blades and showing a pitiable dearth of buttons Their language was of the cannon [illegible] and they longed to taste powder What valorous deeds they would do if they could only get to Washington to protect the President It was evident they longed for the flesh pots of Egypt One while talking longingly for blood became so enthusiastic that he jumped up and had an imaginary sabre combat with an imperceptible foe At this juncture the door opened and in walked two plainly dressed strangers

We want to see your muster roll they said quickly Do you wish to sign your names was asked joyously Already we have 100 000 men ready to march to Washington Come sign and the paper was held temptingly forward No we don't want to sign was the ready reply we merely want this roll to see who are on the list

Do you want to arrest us? And all shook visibly No only this paper which we intend carrying to Capt DeCamp of the Second Precinct [illegible] the men withdrew As soon as they were gone Col Tucker became exceedingly indignant He declared the seizure of the roll a high handed outrage and asseverated that the rights of American citizens should be respected even if he had to wade through blood In [illegible] he began to buckle on his spurs—a most formidable pair and bade all who loved him to follow him as he was going to make a foray on Capt DeCamp At the station house Col Tucker let himself out asked if the rights of American citizens were not to be respected and promised utter annihilation to all policemen The policeman smiled Am I arrested? he asked

Oh no in reply we only wanted the list

I insist on being arrested said Col Tucker I want to be made a martyr Please make a martyr of me But the sergeant in charge refused to gratify his wish and the redoubtable colonel pleading to be made a martyr, was led away sorrowfully away

The Voice of the Press

[From the Springfield (Mass) Republican]

Everything is proven everything is admitted, and Congress has no escape from the choice and the issue which the President has forced upon it, unless it abandons the whole contest forever, and establishes the precedent that the Executive Department may annul and defy at pleasure the acts of the Legislative The Tenure of Office Bill may or may not be constitutional—of that the President is not the judge but until the courts have otherwise decided it is the law of the land, and the President cannot release himself from his obligation to obey it. Action is the word of the hour at Washington and there is no doubt what it will be

[From the Boston Advertiser]

The provision of the act is so clearly intended to bring him within the purview of this clause of the Constitution that it is impossible to doubt that he deliberately took his steps in contravention of the act with the set purpose of defying Congress to impeach him Taken in connection with his soliciting various officers to accept brevets and high command, his conduct is exactly that of the pugnacious Irishman in a Donnybrook fair, who trails his coat on the ground, and challenges any gentleman to step on it.

From the Boston Journal

It is not a question between President Johnson and the Republican party which is the issue. It is not whether the policy adopted by Congress is right or wrong that is to be adjudicated upon; but it is to be settled whether the President of the United States can wilfully defy the whole people by assuming the powers of a dictator, and, by a total disregard of law, subvert the great principle of the right of the people to self government.

From the Hartford Courant

There is nothing revolutionary or in any [illegible] censurable in what Congress has thus far done. Seeing that the President has wilfully and defiantly violated the laws that he is solemnly sworn to execute and done it in plain accordance with his general determination to embarrass and d[illegible] Congress in all possible ways, that Congress, in the maintenance of common self respect and fidelity to the Constitution, cannot do otherwise than to bring the controversy to an issue in the manner pointed out by the Constitution With that august body the Senate, specially sworn for the occasion the decision must rest

From the Detroit Post

Unless Mr Johnson retreats from his untenable and illegal position, he will be and ought to be, removed from the office which he disgraces.

From the Philadelphia Post]

There is one thing in which we rejoice. Congress has no retreat it has burned its ships and must advance or be ruined The President cannot escape impeachment, for he has committed the unpardonable sin, he has defied the law by a direct act If there is anything certain in the future this is certain That at five o'clock this afternoon the House of Representatives will pass the resolution by which the usurper will be brought to trial for his crimes The impeachment of the President means his conviction and his conviction is the victory of freedom and the law

[From the Reading Dispatch]

We thank God it has come to this! We will hail the glorious morn when the crisis comes which is to forever settle this vexed question in our Government, whether the people shall rule, or whether the tyrant, despot and usurper, Andrew Johnson shall grind to dust the last vestige of Republicanism

[From the Springfield (Ills) Republican.]

The country not Congress nor the Republican party demands the removal of the Chief Magistrate for the sake of the national honor and dignity

[From the Philadelphia Inquirer]

At length the great point has been reached where forbearance ceases to be a virtue, the issue has been forced upon the country by the [illegible] of Mr Johnson It must be settled whether this is a nation in which the people rule or whether our rights are dependent upon the will of one man, who is our creature, guerdoned with power by our permission It is a question between the universal principles of republicanism and those of despotism and aristocracy

[From the Philadelphia North American]

So long as there was a possibility that patience would bridge over the troubles that time would cure the difficulties either originated or aggravated by the President, we were willing that a course of wise inactivity should be pursued by Congress. The last events show that forbearance is misconstrued and has ceased to be a virtue We trust, therefore that Congress in whom we have the highest confidence will no longer delay to act, but that by instant and decisive conduct it will remove the great hindrance and danger of the hour

[From the Chicago Journal]

The President having taken his stand and made his object so so unmistakable, a grave responsibility rests upon Congress in the premises. We trust that body will now assume the responsibility, and by decisive action put the president in a position where he can neither rule nor ruin the country

From the Cincinnati Gazette]

Congress is finding out that there can be no peace so long as this public enemy occupies the Executive office and that the failure to impeach was a great error

THAD STEVENS IN HIS FINAL TRIUMPH.—The correspondent of the New York Tribune gives this graphic sketch of Thad Stevens, and his attempt to make the closing speech on the impeachment debate

Then up rose Thad Stevens pale, feeble, thin, and bemounted the speaker's stand in a profound silence and takes a chair at the left of Mr Colfax and below Water is brought the old man; he rises to make the closing speech Not yet. Tis half past four at five the vote must be taken Mr Bingham makes a motion to extend the time of debate and his object is evidently not understood Members flock to the front of the speaker's stand and indicate by their actions and words that there must be no violation of the agreement A division is had on Mr Bingham's motion but it is voted down and he withdraws the motion to save time A motion is made for unanimous consent to extend his time over the hour. The Democrats refuse to grant it and threaten to filibuster to escape from the punishment of an hour's speech from the dying, but awful old Commoner He is tied up to the unexpired thirty minutes To his feet the old man rises, and steadies himself against the marble desk Down the alleys between the seats pour Democrats and Republicans alike to catch his every word, for the veteran orator's voice is low and husky, and oft is lost in weakness He begins—that old familiar tone thrilling to all of us from its association with the triumphs the struggles, the wit, the sarcasm the goodness the popularity the power of the ablest Representative in Congress since John Quincy Adams sank down on its floor in death, but the voice ceases—the veteran is unequal to the effort Prudently distrustful of his strength, he had written what he wished to say The House gave him permission to read it by the clerk McPherson It was a great speech, of which no mention will suffice, and which a summary would mar

THE INDIANS OF MAINE In Maine there are three distinct governments General Camberlin shares the gubernatorial honors with Mr Joseph Attean and Mr John Frances Attean is Governor of the Penobscot Indians, and has four hundred and sixty four subjects The capital is Oldtown and the Governor's salary is fifty dollars A Maine newspaper says the Penobscots are prosperous and happy Their wants are few and simple Their religion requires that a granite cross be erected in their burial ground Their political strifes have been quieted by judicious legislation at Augusta The prohibitory law has been entirely successful among them and fire water has been [illegible] a stranger in Oldtown wigwams On the whole the Penobscot Indians are slowly but surely becoming civilized Governor Francis is not so fortunate as Governor Attean The Passamaquoddy tribe, [illegible] a great deal of suffering among the poorer Indians

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 23, 1868

Gold and Paper.

One of the results of the late Democratic rebellion is the increased taxation which the people are compelled to bear. The country has been unfortunate in having to encounter this rebellion, to suppress which, it has cost about five thousand millions of dollars, one half of which yet remains to be paid. Now the so-called Democracy, as the culpable party, are extremely anxious to fasten the blame of this state of things on other shoulders; and they are continually laboring to frame some kind of excuse for themselves, and to withdraw public attention from the fact that they caused the debt. A favorite form of expression with them is to denounce the policy of "gold for the rich and paper for the poor." Let us agree that this is oppressive and unjust. Let us agree, further, that irredeemable paper for the poor is unjust anyhow, without regard to the currency of the rich. Why not unite in a resolution to get back to specie payments for everybody as soon as possible? Why not level up to a better currency, instead of leveling down to a worse one? But this policy does not suit the "Democracy." They would flood the country with new shinplasters and drag the currency down from bad to worse continually. They cry out against the taxes and want them reduced, and at the same time demand that the debt be paid in greenbacks. But if the taxes are not kept up, the Government can get no greenbacks for the purpose. The Democratic position therefore necessarily demands that new issues of greenbacks be made. Do sensible men believe that this is the way to get back to the system of hard money? Is this the way to get "gold for the poor?"

Held to Answer.

The "Democratic" platform declares for the "time honored principles of the Democratic party," but does not go into particulars to explain what these "principles" are. It devolves on their orators and newspaper organs to make this explanation. We give them notice of the intention of the Union party to press an inquiry on this point. [illegible] shall not be permitted to escape by [illegible] of vague generalities and elusive answers. As they have declared for the "time-honored principles," those principles shall be subjected to the [illegible] investigation as the campaign progresses. On this point the spokesmen of the party are held to answer, and they may as well begin at once to [illegible] their defense.

Since the adoption of the Constitution there have been five trials of impeachment by the Senate. The first of these was that of William Blount, [illegible] from Tennessee. It commenced December 17, 1798, and was concluded January 14, 1799. The next was the trial of John Pickering, Judge of the New Hampshire District, which lasted from March 2 to March 12, 1803. The third was the [illegible] of Samuel Chase, one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, which was commenced November 30, 1804, and [illegible] till March 1, 1805. The fourth was the trial of James H. Peck, Judge of the Missouri District, which was prolonged through two sessions, viz: From May 11 to May 25, 1830, and from December 20 of the same year to January 31, 1831. The last trial by the Senate was on the [illegible] of Judge Humphreys, of the Tennessee District, in the year 1862.

The [illegible] (Cal.) Transcript has an article [illegible] the inconsistency of the Democracy, which [illegible] "The Unfortunate White Man," and [illegible] as follows: That party hold the negro to be a coward, and yet fear that he will com[illegible] against eight times his number of white men. They hold him too lazy to work, and yet fear that he will occupy the best lands of the South. His intellectual improvement is impossible, and according to Democracy he will become the ruling race of the country, unless he is kept in subjection. These positions of Democracy [illegible] the negro question may be demonstrated by a perusal of any modern Democratic journal. If [illegible] is right in its estimate of the negro, [illegible] a poor unfortunate and miserable set are the white race.

The Record says that the Salem flouring mills are running only thirteen hours per day, at the [illegible]. No great amount of flour has been shipped for some time, as there is no place to put it in Portland, and no vessels to carry it away. As a consequence, an immense amount of flour is stowed away in the mill, and whenever the boats can carry it to advantage, several loads are ready for ship[illegible]. The stock of wheat on hand in [illegible] houses during the winter, is sensibly diminished, but large amounts are being constantly received.

The Jacksonville Sentinel says: As an inducement to locate the Woolen Factory at Ashland, the people of that place offered to put the water from Ashland creek on to the wheel whenever the company desired. They are now keeping their word, and with commendable spirit they are engaged in digging the race and building a substantial flume for that purpose. The flume will be about two hundred and forty feet in length, and the whole work will be worth over eight hundred dollars to the company.

The La Crosse Democrat despises such subterfuge as [illegible] to favor the payment of the National debt, and boldly flings out the banner of repudiation. He says:

> Not a county in the Confederation of States but has in it men—brave men not cowards and [illegible] but brave, earnest, noble-hearted friends of the people, who are there kindling the fires of repudiation and aiding us in the work of illuminating the future of America's toilers with the bonfire which will give us light, light taxation and relief to those who labor.

"Economy and Retrenchment," says the Springfield Republican, "will be the battle cry of Democracy in next summer's Presidential campaign. The division of the House Judiciary Committee on the question of paying three full mileages to the present Congress shows the sincerity of the pretense. The two Democrats on the Committee were in favor of the payment, and all but one of the seven Republicans against it.

Andrew Johnson's idea of the extent of his constitutional power of removal and appointment, must have been derived from reading the wrong document. The Constitution of Jeff. Davis' Confederate States contains the following:

> "The principal officers in each of the executive departments, and all persons connected with the diplomatic service may be removed from office at the pleasure of the President."

The first business in order in the National Democratic Convention will be to appoint a Committee on Pardons. Four members of the Kentucky delegation held commissions in the rebel army, and one of them was a member of the Confederate Congress.

Dr. Laughy Hall "proposes" to be the next Sheriff of Douglas county, and offers to perform the county business for half legal fees.

B. Herman, of Roseburg, has been appointed Deputy Collector for Douglas county in place of Johnson, who lately absconded.

The Union Convention of Douglas county, for the nomination of county officers, will be held on the 3d of May.

At Fort Klamath last winter, the mercury fell as low as 26 deg. below zero.

In the course of the evening, Mr. Forrester, a member for Bradford, alluded to the state of the law in regard to the allegiance of British subjects saying that the matter especially demanded attention in the bearing it had on the relations of this country to the United States. He thought the time ripe for arriving at a definite understanding. He explained the law on the right of expatriation. He showed that at the present time two millions of the Queen's subjects are living in the United States as American citizens in practical violation of the law. It was the difference which arose between England and America in regard to the rights of adopted citizens which caused the war of 1812. Now it was the difference which still exists, which was counted on by the Fenians as likely again to embroil the two nations and thus further their treasonable designs. He urged that Great Britain abandon her claim to life allegiance in case of emigrants to foreign countries, and advised the appointment of a mixed commission to settle the question forever.

Sir Robert Collier supported the views of Mr. Forrester.

Lord Stanley addressed the House, and in speaking of the principles on which the laws were founded, admitted that the dogma of natural allegiance was now obsolete. He informed the House that the Government had already made advances for the settlement of the question at issue and declared that they were willing to meet the Government of the United States half way. There were many difficulties in the way of adjustment, but he was happy to say they were not regarded as insuperable. He stated that the foreign office was now in communication with Mr. Seward on the subject, and concluded by approving the proposition of the member from Bradford. Sir Randall Palmer hoped that the expatriated subject from Great Britain would not be suffered to make war on their parent country.

A dispatch from Constantinople reports that the Grand Vizier complains that aid is indirectly furnished by the Russian transports to small bands of Cretan insurgents in the mountains. It claims that this prevents the restoration of complete tranquility to Candia.

VICTORIA, March 20.—The ship Fanny, from Nanaimo, with a cargo of coal, bound for San Francisco, and the bark Rosella, from Burrard's Inlet, bound for China, with lumber, went ashore on Discovery Island during a severe gale last night. It is likely that they will both become total wrecks.

The brig Robert Cowan sailed hence for Honolulu yesterday morning, with a cargo of lumber and general merchandise.

The U. S. Rev. Cutter Lincoln, with the mail for San Francisco, and the ship Trebolgan for Shanghai, will sail this afternoon.

In December, 1860, Gen. Wool wrote to Gen. Cass, then Secretary of State at Washington, to ask him to impress upon the President the immediate garrisoning of Fort Moultrie, and the adoption of other prompt measures to check the headlong course of South Carolina. Gen. Cass replied in the following letter, which has only recently appeared in print:

"MY DEAR SIR: I received, some days since, your truly patriotic letter, and showed it to the President. He fully appreciated your pure motives, but, as you will have seen, does not concur with you as to the measures to be taken. We have indeed fallen upon evil times. The pillars of our glorious temple are shaking. Whether they are to be overthrown, and with them the noblest and freest government ever given to man, God alone knows. While my gloomy apprehensions predominate, I have yet some hope that the same kind Providence who has so often saved us from anarchy, will yet interpose for our rescue. I have felt it necessary to leave the Cabinet, as you will have seen. I part from J. Buchanan and the administration with the kindest feelings. But the course of measures which I considered necessary did not appear to them to be called for, and I was unwilling to remain and share in the responsibility which did not belong to me. And now, my friend, farewell. You have been a gallant soldier, and by your noble deeds have inscribed your name upon the roll of your country. May the evening of your days be without a cloud, though I fear they will not be.

(Signed) "LEWIS CASS."

THE STEAMER JOHN L. STEPHENS not lost! but has arrived at Portland, and brought to KOHN & FISHEL, the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Spring and Summer Suits, the latest style, and of the best material that has been offered in Portland for years. The Ladies have not been forgotten. They will find by an inspection of the stock just arrived, that their wants have been anticipated by a selection of dry goods, the equal of which is not often presented here.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged from shell in Indiaink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Ramsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

DIVIDEND, JAN'Y 1, 1868,

FORTY PER CENT. UPON ALL POLICIES THAT have been in force four years, and payable on the anniversaries of the renewals of said policies.

This Company in declaring its Dividends, do so UPON THE PERCENTAGE SYSTEM, thus each insurer, WHETHER HE IS A RICH MAN OR A POOR MAN, A PROMINENT CITIZEN OR AN HUMBLE CITIZEN, SHARES ALIKE.

PREMIUM SYSTEM.

CASH, WHEN REQUIRED. NOTES ARE, HOWEVER TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums, thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually CANCEL THE NOTES.

How different this is from a Cash Company who exact all Cash, under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy holder, when he is unable to pay his renewal premium.

REMEMBER

That the "OLD MANHATTAN" never assumed or promised Extravagant Dividends to induce insurers to come and insure with them. Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well managed and first-class Companies, and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future. It never vilifies the character of other Companies to accumulate business. THE MANHATTAN'S oldest insurers are its best advocates. The business of the Company is conducted with ECONOMY!

This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future.

From the following table, taken from the New York Insurance Reports of 1867, it will be seen that our percentage of expenses to receipts are very much less than any Companies enumerated below:

Expenses on each $100 of Receipts:

Manhattan Life	13 16

North America	15 44
Mutual Life	17 09
Continental	20 54
Germania	23 11

This Company insures upon all the most approved plans, AND AT THE SAME RATES CHARGED BY ALL FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES. APPLICANTS, before insuring, would do well to examine our Circulars, which can be had upon application either by mail or otherwise, to

EARLY NAVIGATION OF THE COLUMBIA BAR.—Mr Eugene [illegible] of Oregon City contributes to the Enterprise [illegible] concerning the wreck in 1849 of the Morning Star, a French barque commanded by Capt Frank [illegible], whose death occurred at St Louis Marion county 25th December 1867 Mr La Forest was the mate As the paper is an interesting reminiscence of the early settlement of the country we copy the greater portion of it The wreck occurred upon the trip of the Morning Star she having brought out [illegible] Bishop Blanchett ten priests seven nuns three [illegible] and a cargo of goods belonging to the Bishop [illegible] trip Mr La Forest says

December 1848 we left Havre De Grace and [illegible] the Columbia river Bar about the middle of July [illegible] lead outside the bar seven days waiting for [illegible] but no pilot could be obtained and by the [illegible] of the Captain of an American brig who informed Mr Reese, the Bar Pilot had been drowned [illegible] San Francisco it was agreed that both vessels cross the bar as soon as the wind was favorable [illegible] having crossed once before consented to [illegible] while the other vessel should follow but in to [illegible] the wrong direction for the channel had [illegible] 1847 and the Morning Star was badly [illegible] for nine hours on the bar with very heavy [illegible] about us The American ship I forget the [illegible] had been in our wake passed us about 200 [illegible] struck the bottom at several places but [illegible] drawing but about six or seven feet of [illegible] the Morning Star drew 16 feet We lost all life-boats of the Morning Star while at[illegible] to lower them to save the crew at which time [illegible] drowned The keel was loose from the stern [illegible] lost—leaving the vessel uncontrolable—[illegible] Providence interceding in our behalf and [illegible] of the captain and crew it was brought to [illegible] with four feet of water in the hold This [illegible] miraculous escape Most of the pumps were [illegible] it was almost impossible to keep her afloat [illegible] the courage and skill of the Captain and crew [illegible] of Mr Latta, a river pilot who brought [illegible] a number of Indians who were [illegible] at work pumping and bailing [illegible] a place of safety We built a box rud[der] [illegible] we succeeded in steering the vessel up [illegible] river to Portland and landed where the [illegible] warehouse now stands, which all pioneers [illegible] well remember Here we succeeded in [illegible] and the hull was sold to Messrs. Couch [illegible] by them to Mr Chas Hutchins who [illegible] her for the iron and copper [illegible] settled at Oregon City where he lived till [illegible] removed to St. Louis, French Prairie [illegible] last December

[illegible] SOCIETY.—A meeting of the Board of the State Agricultural Society was [illegible] at [illegible], and we published at the time a [illegible] of the proceedings The Enterprise, how[ever] [illegible] further information, obtained from Presi[dent] Dufur, which we copy [illegible] some years [illegible] bill granting lands in aid of agricultural [illegible] Oregon was to receive some ninety [illegible] but she has not, as yet, and why? Be[illegible] [illegible] to cavil and doubt is so eminent [illegible] when the question of locality [illegible] in this State that the location was [illegible] even though the Legislature appointed [illegible] to attend to this in 1862 The Directors [illegible] to try, and will see if a farmer s voice is [illegible] anything—and if it is not too late entire[ly] [illegible] to have farmers appointed who will locate [illegible] land and the site for the college The board [illegible] a resolution to collect and complete sta[tistics] [illegible] agricultural and manufacturing resources [illegible] President Dufur of Portland Ex Presi[dent] [illegible] of Albany, Rev Mr Condon of [illegible] Smith of Douglas county John Min[illegible] Moores of Salem, were appointed such [illegible] and that citizens generally corres[pond] [illegible] of this Committee. The time for [illegible] State Fair was fixed for commencing on [illegible] September to continue six days We hope [illegible] not be changed The list of premiums is [illegible] this year than last. HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache General Debility Nervousness, Depression of Spirits Constipation Colic, Intermittent Fevers Sea Sickness Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion Acting as a gentle and painless aperient as well as upon the liver it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes

As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day

THE CORNERS REBELS—[illegible] OF JOHNSON BY THE [illegible] DEMOCRACY OF THAT DEMOCRATIC LOCALITY.

POST OFFIS, CONFEDRIT X ROADS, }
(Wich is in the State uv Kentucky,)
January 2[illegible], 18[illegible] }

The Corners met last night to consider the sitooashen uv the country, and in view uv the impendin crisis, it wuz voted that I be instructed to pen a address to A. Johnson, settin forth the troubles to wich he hez brot us, and sejestin remedies. The Corners meets frekently. In fact when cash runs low and Bascom refuses to trust we hold a politikle meetin. It acts ez a stimulent and takes the place of our natral sustenance. Very comfortable. Thus empowered, I wrote ez follows, wich will, I doubt not, make a sensashen when it reaches Washinton.

To A. Johnson, Prest. U. S.

The Democracy uv Confedrit X Roads, wich is in the State uv Kentucky, representin the Democracy uv the rest uv the State, and uv the country as well, cannot hold their peace no longer. They must speek or bust. They herd the news and ther hez bin nothin but weepin at the Corners since. Bascom, that sterlin patriot, is sheddin pearls by the bucketful, Deekin Pogram weeps not in drops but in streems, and ez for me, yoo wouldn't believe the amount uv pocket handkerchers I hev consumed. Never hez ther bin sich a moist time at the Corners, never hev we lived in sich an atmosphere uv dampnis.

I shel speak plainly, I am not afeerd to speek. Yoo can't remove me. The tenor uv offis act perteks me and yoo can't remove me. Therefore I [illegible].

The Corners feels itself outraged. When the Cor[illegible] took stock in you, the Corners sposed yoo hed [illegible] to run the Administrashen [illegible]. The Corners felt that her interests wuz safe in yoor hands. We to wunst commenst operatin [illegible] that stand-pint. Deekin Pogram got his [illegible] together, sich uv em ez hedn't bin sent [illegible] at different times, and commenst wallupin uv em ez uv yoar, and the others in this vicinity give [illegible] the opshen uv quietly submittin to their inevitable fate, or bein shot. Wat wuz the result? The [illegible] Burow come in, and them [illegible], instid uv bein made servants unto their [illegible], hev bin permitted to accumulate property and live in all respecks jist as tho they wuz [illegible] the dominant race. Agin this [illegible] we held up our hands, and you hev made [illegible] towards rectifyin, but to what avail? [illegible] is never before disgraced the histry uv [illegible] politiks. Yoo kep Stanton in place on [illegible] the voice uv an indignant Democrisy demand [illegible] his removal. Then wuz your opportunity. [illegible] wuz Democrats who wood hev took it. [illegible] or Ginral Rosso wood either uv [illegible] hev bin glad to serve the country in that capacity, but blindly yoo rushed upon fate by puttin in that place Grant, whose hands is stained [illegible] blood, which he haint washed off [illegible] the Ablishen candidate for presidency [illegible] who by economisin at the rate of $25,-000,000 per annum, demonstrated to the country [illegible] that was goin on in other departments [illegible] who is ez much worse than Stanton ez a [illegible] is a locomotive is superior to a taller [illegible]. Oh, wot loonacy. Oh, wot weaknis.

[illegible] agin. The people uv the Third district [illegible] under the oppreshun uv Pope, that is, [illegible] white people did. He wuz carryin out with [illegible] the laws uv a usurpin Congris [illegible] a persikootin the piebald convenshun [illegible] from us one uv our best States. [illegible] cried out in agony and yoo heerd her. [illegible] moved Pope and put in his place [illegible]. We felt relieved; not but that Meade's [illegible] were agin us, but we did spose that [illegible] not agin fall into that same old trap [illegible]. The first act uv the cussed Meade [illegible] the Guvner and Treasurer, who [illegible] pay the expenses uv the unconstitooshnel [illegible], and to-day the people who trembled [illegible] Pope shiver at the menshun uv [illegible].

[illegible] does not end here. Forth[illegible] stooshnel Senit, from wich ten States [illegible], turns in and replaces Stanton, givin him the posishen uv wich yoo attempted [illegible], and you take it mild ez milk and [illegible] a lamb!

[illegible] You hev instructed your orgins to [illegible] that General Grant wuz in the habit uv bein intoxikated! Miserable [illegible] policy! You may possibly make [illegible] bleeve it and detach em from him, [illegible] attach the entire Democrisy to him [illegible]. Fasten that charge upon [illegible] Kentucky bleeve it, and Kentucky [illegible] give him her electoral vote. Don't [illegible] that the Democrisy took no stock [illegible] your 22d of February speech? and [illegible] support yoo corjelly from that time [illegible].

[illegible] to add more. Indignantly [illegible] epistle. I hev stood by you three [illegible]. I wuz at your side on the two [illegible] and the one South; I apologized for [illegible], glossed over your faults and [illegible] your weaknis. At Cleveland, for [illegible] told em, after yoo hed made your [illegible] yoo were drunk, when you wasn't, [illegible] at other times I hev explained [illegible] eccentricities similarly.

[illegible] it wuz me who prokored on your [illegible] the only endorsement you ever got from [illegible] along the road West yoo and Seward [illegible] in vain to git some expression [illegible]. What yoo did not care, but yoo [illegible]. He stood up ez immovable ez a stun, [illegible] either by words or countenance nothin. [illegible] Creek, which is in the State uv Michi[illegible] Seward in his speech in response [illegible] for "Grant," remarked, "Yoo can't [illegible] Grant from the President—he is [illegible]." Ez the words left the Secretary's lips, [illegible], I pulled a pin from my coat [illegible] it into the General, just about two [illegible] the buttons on his coat behind. Uv [illegible] bowed—not gracefully, but it wuz a [illegible]. He hez cost me more finanshel ability to [illegible] yoo agin than wood hev sufficed to hev bot [illegible] kingdom and run it.

But I shel do it no more. I withdraw miself [illegible] your support. Mi self-respek will no longer [illegible] me to rank miself with your endorsers. [illegible] Co. is outraged. Deekin Pogram is outraged, and [illegible] is outraged. You mite hev [illegible] for yourself a name and place in history, but [illegible] too late. We shel nominate for President [illegible] one who will be troo to his frends and terrible to [illegible]; who will, ef elected, at least carry out ez much uv Dimocratic principle ez ther [illegible] be left at that time. Yoor short stay in the Ablishen ranks ruined yoo. You lost your [illegible] characteristics, and air now a poor being, [illegible] in yoor person everything that is bad, in both organizations, with nothin that is [illegible]. The Corners repoodiates yoo.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.,

Gretchen's Forethought.

[illegible] was once upon a time a very wise maiden [illegible] a long way before her, and kept continually [illegible] everything that might, by any possibility, come to pass. She was one day sent into the cellar to draw wine for some travelers who had arrived at the inn. As she sat down before the cask to draw the liquor, all sorts of wise thoughts rushed through her brain, as to what would be the consequence if so and-so should happen; and she went on thinking till she got so terrified that she remained sitting before the cask, wringing her hands and deploring the great misfortune.

Meanwhile the guests sat up stairs without anything to drink. The host, seeing that they were getting impatient, exclaimed:

"Where on earth is Gretchen with the wine? Run down, Hans, and see why she does not bring it."

Hans went down, crying out as he entered the cellar:

"What keeps you so long? Why don't you bring up the wine for the guests?"

"Ah, Hans," said Gretchen, "you can't think what a dreadful thing has come into my head. Only fancy! As I draw the wine I sit and think. I think how it would be if Hans married Gretchen, and Gretchen had a baby, and the baby wanted a cot, and the cot was made by the carpenter, and the carpenter left the hatchet, and the hatchet fell on the baby, and the baby was killed! Oh, what a great misfortune 'twould be!"

"That is true," said Hans. "It would certainly be a great misfortune."

Thereupon down sat Hans by the side of Gretchen, and helped her to draw the wine and think over the great misfortune that might happen. All this time the guests above had nothing to drink, and were getting quite impatient. The host remarking it, said to his wife

"Go down yourself and see what keeps them both with the wine."

The hostess went down to the cellar, and seeing them both seated before the cask in deep thought, exclaimed:

"For heaven's sake, what are you both about, that you do not bring the wine to the guests?"

"Ah, mistress," said Hans, "you cannot fancy what a dreadful wise thought has come into Gretchen's head, and what terrible things might happen. Only listen. As we draw the wine, we sit and think. We think how it would be if Hans married Gretchen, and Gretchen had a baby, and the baby wanted a cot, and the cot was made by the carpenter, and the carpenter left his hatchet, and the hatchet fell on the baby, and the baby was killed. Oh, what a great misfortune 'twould be!"

"That is true, indeed," said the woman. "That would be a desperate misfortune!"

And down she sat beside Gretchen and Hans, and helped them to draw and consider what a great misfortune it would be if it came to pass as they thought.

All this time the guests above, having nothing to drink, began to be very angry, upon which the host said

"Stay. I will go down myself and see what is become of the wine."

As he entered the cellar and saw the three sitting musing on the ground, he furiously exclaimed:

"Are you all gone mad, that you sit poking your heads together here, and the guests without their wine?"

"Ah, husband," replied the landlady, "if you only knew what a wise thought Gretchen has had of the terrible things that might happen. Only fancy! As we draw the wine we sit and think. We think how it would be if Hans married Gretchen and Gretchen had a baby and the baby wanted a cot, and the cot was made by the carpenter and the carpenter left his hatchet, and the hatchet fell on the baby, and the baby was killed. Oh what a misfortune 'twould be!"

"Beshrew me," said the host, "that would really be, I must confess, a terrible misfortune!"

And down sat the host himself with his wife and with Hans, and with Gretchen, to help them to think over the great misfortune that might happen if things turned out as they thought.

Meanwhile the guests above were nearly dying with thirst; but not being desirous of such a catastrophe, they began to get noisy. At last they exclaimed

"Let us go after the rascal to the cellar, and see why the wine is not forthcoming."

Thereupon down they all went, and when they came into the cellar and saw the four seated in a row, thinking over the great misfortune, they shouted:

"Heyday, what are you all squatting here for, leaving us to die with thirst up stairs?"

"Ah, gentlemen," said the host, "it is well you have come down, for you may be some help to us. Gretchen sees a long way before her, and has thought of such a dreadful thing that might happen. And now as we draw the wine we sit and think. We think how 'twould be if Hans married Gretchen, and Gretchen had a baby, and the baby wanted a cot, and the cot was made by the carpenter, and the carpenter left his hatchet, and the hatchet fell on the baby, and the baby was killed. Oh, what a great misfortune 'twould be!

But, the guests said

"You may sit there now as long as you like, for aught we care, for the cask is run out, and the wine is all about the cellar."

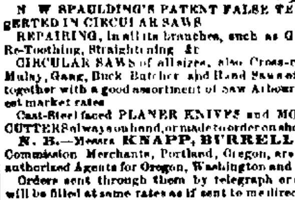
LEFFEL'S
AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery. Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

☞ The following is from the Springfield Republic.

Trial of Water Wheels.

Messrs. Jonathan Child and John A. McCreight, who are about establishing mills and factories at Harper's Ferry, Va., wished to procure water wheels and desiring to make a choice of Springfield Wheels, procured a trial between the Leffel Double Turbine and the Welch and Burns Wheel. The following report of the Committee shows the result of the trial.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 11, 1867.

This is to certify that on the 9th and 10th days of October, 1867, I, in company with Mr. Staley, Civil Engineer, of Mechanicsburg, carefully measured the amount of water used in the test between the 10 inch Leffel Turbine and the 10 inch Welch & Burns Water wheels, made by Bechtle, Blakeney & Baker, made at Wenner's mill near West Milton, Miami Co., O. The contract requiring the tests to be made with ½ gates and ¾ gates with the same amount of water for each wheel. The amount of grinding was superintended by Mr. Charles Morgan who will report the results.

The amount of water used in the tests, as measured by myself and Mr. Staley, is as follows:

	C. ft. per min.
At ½ gate the Leffel Wheel used	88 221
" Welch & Burns used	88 221
At ¾ gate the Leffel Wheel used	117 528
" Welch & Burns used	117 528

The grinding was continued for one hour each test.
WILLIAM BROWN,
Civil Engineer
S. S. STALEY.

Having been chosen by both parties to determine the amount of grain ground by each of the above mentioned wheels, the result was as follows:

The Leffel Wheel at ½ gate ground	256	lbs
The Welch & Burns at ½ gate ground	56½	lbs
The Leffel Wheel at ¾ gate ground	411½	lbs
The Welch & Burns at ¾ gate ground	193	lbs

CHARLES MORGAN.

An Enterprising firm of this city have imported a few of the above CHEAP, PLAYED-OUT WHEELS. "They GUARANTEE THEM EQUAL TO THE LEFFEL, OR NO PAY."

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted. A. MYERS

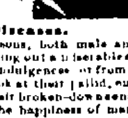
Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fœtid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Medical and Surgical
INSTITUTE.

- ⁂ CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE.
- ⁂ CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.
- ⁂ IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so unsavory a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible]; but the desire to point out to those who [illegible] and decay, the true cause of their [illegible], great an incentive to be forced into silence. [illegible] the terrible [illegible] of Seminal Weakness [illegible] one but the practical specialist who devotes his [illegible] treatment can tell, but its presence can be detected by the most inexperienced by noting the following symptoms: Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power, nervousness; [illegible] cold feet or [illegible], accompanied by hot head; [illegible] of [illegible], short breath; flushings of the face; aversion to society; confusion of the [illegible], loss of [illegible] nightly emissions; colorless, slight discharges [illegible] least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the heart; [illegible] regular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the [illegible] symptoms enumerated above, pause to [illegible]; the present is the golden moment in which you may [illegible] health and happiness. You may feel strong now, but you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse [illegible] minutes, [illegible], you have the seeds of [illegible] system, and their undermining influence will, sooner or later, dash the fair edifice of your [illegible] to the ground, leaving you a helpless, abject being. [illegible] disease that declares itself at once. [illegible] est danger; for while the patient is being treated [illegible] affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Digestive [illegible] tions, he sinks into a general debility that soon [illegible] to the list of the victims of the terrible disease, Seminal Weakness.

See in the best form and languishing [illegible], the victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the course of [illegible] destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull eye.

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory symptoms [illegible] first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually [illegible] great disinclination to pursue his regular [illegible] mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights [illegible] days of [illegible].

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of recovery. In a single instant it may wither your hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a [illegible] lief. This is an error of the first magnitude, for the system unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] denly fails, and he finds himself in a deplorable [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible]. Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they [illegible] ny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This is [illegible] ble to both sexes, whether married or single, and [illegible] times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the symptoms of [illegible] rible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to [illegible] to them, but by instant application [illegible] only hope of health and happiness. The D[illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures, when [illegible] time, always guaranteed, and full and [illegible] stored.

The afflicted are assured of every confidence [illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH [illegible]
NEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the [illegible] the Institute, the number of cases of V[illegible] been treated, show a record unsurpassed by any [illegible] in the world, and the success that has invariably [illegible] the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other D[illegible]
Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not [illegible] called for, but actually dangerous, for it is an established medical principle that those [illegible] by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and [illegible] life.

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few [illegible] and finds no difficulty in curing those of long [illegible] without submitting the patient to such treatment [illegible] draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or [illegible] neglect his business, whether in-doors or with [illegible] diet need not be changed. Cures always guaranteed, no pay required.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] requires medical or surgical assistance, the [illegible] be. Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] relief and whose respectable standing in society [illegible] commend him to the confidence of the community? [illegible] Doctor understanding how imperatively [illegible] requirements are, feels called upon to inter[illegible] calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for [illegible] ty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all [illegible] both medically and surgically, not in a superficial [illegible] but in as thorough a manner as years of study and [illegible]—both in hospitals and private families—can [illegible] them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous [illegible] designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as [illegible] a father. All in affliction can find in him one who [illegible] and sympathize with and befriend them in [illegible] in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be [illegible]. Consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures guaranteed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the [illegible]. Private apartments are provided when desired, [illegible] be had all the advantages of unremitted att[illegible] of the Doctor and the most skillful and and faithful [illegible]

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons, either male or [illegible] residing in the interior are often deterred from [illegible] the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, [illegible] the expense of a visit to the city. To such be [illegible] that a plain statement of the symptoms and [illegible] bearing upon the complaint will enable him to [illegible] for them so that they can be cured at home. [illegible] have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint, as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor, and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed.
